News of the Day.

"To show the very age and body of the TIMES."

The Paris correspondent of the New York Commercial says:—"Napoleon is to-day the terrible battle had been fought, and a great most popular sovereign in Europe, and this war will make him even more popular with the Freuch than his uncle was. England will be compelled to show him great civility. The rapidity of his movements from the commencement of this campaign, astonishes everybody. The New York papers have long chapters of accidents on the 4th, most of which happened from the careless use of firearms and explosions. A woman named Disbrow and her child were severely wounded by the explosion of a camphene lamp. They were so badly burnt that it was thought necessary to convey them to the Bellevue Hospital.

St. John's, July 6 .- The steamer Adeaide, from Galway, with dates to the 25th alt., arrived here yesterday. The news boat of the Associated Press also boarded, off Cape Race, on Sunday, the steamer Vigo, from Cork, having the passengers and mails of the steamer City of Baltimore, which sailed from Liverpool on the 22d, for New York, via Cork, but having damaged her propellor, was compelled to return. The Vigo's dates are also to the 25th.

The advices by this arrival are highly important. The Emperor Napoleon had telegraphed to the Empress, on Friday evening, that another victory achieved. The whole Austrian army was formed in a line of battle extending a distance of five leagues.

The battle lasted from 6 o'clock in the morning till 8 o'clock, P. M. The French took many flags and cannon, and numerous prisoners.

A Vienna dispatch says the battle was still progressing at the last accounts.

No details had been received. A previous account from the seat of war, said the Austrian force on the Mencio was fully 280,000 strong. The entire French force had passed Monte Chiaro, and their reconnoisance was said to have been pushed as far as

The Piedmontese troops had advanced towards Peischina.

Napoleon had demanded permission to march with 30,000 troops through Hanover to the Rhine.

It was believed that the basis of the proposed mediation of Prussia would not be acceptable to France, thereby involving Prussia in the war. It was rumored that Prussia had threatened to assist in suppressing the meditated insurrectionary movements in Hungary. The Swiss troops sent from Rome to suppress the rising at Perugia, had a desperate encounter with the people, shooting them down indiscriminately. The latest accounts from Italy say there had been no battle. The allies had occupied Lonato, Castiglione, and Monte Chiaro. The Austrian government had formally declared that the cruelties attributed to Gen. Urban, in Count Cavour's proclamation, were entirely unfounded. The Paris Bourse had declined.

By the steamer Adelaide, arrived at St. Johns, N. F., and the steamer Vigo, spoken off Cape Race, we have European dates to the 25th ult., three days later than previous advices. The Vigo has on board the passengers and mails of the steamer City of Baltimore, which left Liverpool on the 22d ult., 306 votes, 154 of which will be necessary for of damage to her propeller. The news by these arrivals is important. The Emperor Napoleon is reported to have telegraphed to the Empress that another terrible battle had been fought, and a great victory achieved by the allies. A Vienna dispatch says the battle was still progressing at the last accounts. Other accounts are contradictory, and say that no battle had been fought. The allies were moving forward and occupying all the points in front of the line of the Mincio, from Peschiera to Mantua. The Austrians are said to have a force of 280,000 men concentrated within their square of fortresses. Napoleon had demanded permission to march his troops through Hanover to the Rhine. If true, this is important, as Hanover has been foremost among the German Confederacies in manifesting a strong feeling in favor of Austria. We are at loss, however, to understand what can be the object of such a movement, or why, in a military sense, it can be necessary. Hanover being on the further side of the Rhine from France. The terms of mediation proposed by Prussia, is believed, would not be acceptable to France. Prussia was moving her troops towards the Rhine, and it was rumored had threatened to assist Austria in suppressing any insurrectionary movement in Hungary. The Swiss mercenary troops sent from Rome to suppress the rising at Perugia, had a desperate encounter with the people. The French and English funds both show a slight

President Buchanan Formally Demands Satis-

Hon. Robert M. McLane, our minister to Mexico, has addressed to the government of Gen. Miramon, the following formal demand in the name of the President of the United States, for satisfaction for the atrocities and indignities committed upon American citizens during the recent terrible massacre at U. S. LEGATION, Vera Cruz, June 11, 1859.

Sir:-The undersigned, Envoy Extraordinary, and Minister Plenipotentiary of the United States near the Republic of Mexico, having called the attention of the government of the United States to certain cruelties perpetrated at Tacubaya, on the 11th and 12th of April, 1859, by persons acting under the authority of the government having the seat of its power at the city of Mexico, of which Gen. Miramon is the chief executive, and of the withdrawal of the exequaturs heretofore issued to consuls of the United States in Mexico; and having informed it that several citizens of the United States have been the victims of these cruelties, three of whom, Doctors John Duvall, Ignatio Ritchie, and Albert Lamon, were physicians actually engaged in attendance upon the sick and wounded in the military hospitals, and two others, unoffending youths under age, has been instructed to address to you the earnest remonstrance that the occasion cails for.

The President of the United States has examined this subject with deep concern and an anxious desire to adopt the necessary measures, not only to procure the punishment of the persons guilty of these enormities, but also to provide for the security of citizens of the United States residing in the interior of Mexico, and he feels, in common with his countrymen, great indignation that these citizens of the United States should have been murdered under such atrocious circumstances as to merit the reprobation of the civilized world, In the peaceable recognition of the Constitutional government, without any forcible intervention, the government of the United States exercised an unquestioned right under the law of nations which gave no cause of offense to the opposite party contending for power over the country, and did not authorize interference with consuls of the United States in the discharge of their consular functions in their respective districts, and least of all could that political measure justify, or in any way excuse the shocking barbarities whose condemnation is now passing through the world; and aithough the position now occupied by the United States with respect to Mexico, precludes any formal diplomatic intercourse with those exercising power in the city of Mexico, who are not recognized as constituting the government of the republic, yet the enormities are of such an unusual nature as to justify unusal proceedings. Therefore, the undersigned, by the express instructions of his government, calls your attention to these outrages, in violation of the common rights of humanity as well as of solemn treaty obligations, perpe-trated under circumstances that justify this direct remonstrance; that the shelding of blood may be stayed, the personal rights of citizens of the United States respected, and the atrocious criminals who have brought disgrace upon their country duly punished. This measure is due to the character of those exercising power in the city of Mexico, not less than to the character of the Re-

So far as citizens of the United States have been the victims of these violations of natural rights and treaty stipulation, they will be held in remembrance, and redress will be demanded, and ultimately obtained therefor, whatever may be the result of this remom-strance. The President of the United States has read with much satisfaction a communication addressed to the undersigned, under date of April 22d, 1859, by the minister of foreign affairs of the constitutional Government, which is recognized by the United States as the imperial government of Mexico, pronouncing its unqualified condemnation of these reprehensible proceedings, and also conveying assurances of its determination to put a stop to them, and to do its duty to a friendly power. Nevertheless, he considers it proper, as has already been stated. that a direct remonstrance should be addressed to those who are immediately responsible for the outrages and indignities that are the subject of this communication, that the civilized world may know upon whom rests the responsibility of disturbing the ordinary relations of amity and friendship that have been established and guarantied by treaty stipulations between Mexico and the United States, and which the best efforts | Palaski, of the governments of the two republics have | Putnam, failed to maintain, in consequence of the reckless and inhuman excesses of those now acting in the city of Mexico under the authority of the government referred to, and with which you are associated as minister of foreign affairs. The undersigned has the honor to subscribe himself, very respectfully, your obe-

We doubt not, therefore, that this system works well wherever it is adopted, and that it is infinitely superior and happier in its results than the custom of the Northern States. Here, electors will quarrel from the time the nominations are made until the last vote has been deposited in the ballot box, and the result is, that it begets very bad neighborhood and any amount of bad feeling.

Fourth of July in Loudoun County.

The Fourth of July in Middleburg, we understand, was duly celebrated, as per advertised programme. In the absence of Hon. A. R. Boteler, who, we regret to learn, was prevented from being present by severe indisposition, addresses were made by J. Edwin Young, esq., Col. L. Chancellor, Rev. T. A. Ware, and Rev. Mr. Brown. The Declaration of Independence was read by Milton

Letcher's majority,

McVeigh, esq.

The Fourth of July passed very quietly and pleasantly in Leesburg. Business was suspended, and John Barlycorn, who usually figures so prominently on occasions of that sort, was almost completely snubbed. Annual Commencement of Georgetown College For the year 1859, took place on Wednesday morning, at 9 o'clock precisely, in the large hall of the College. This spacious room was filled to its fullest capacity, although it will seat at least two thousand persons. A large portion consisted of ladies, who are among the foremost to cheer ingenuous and ambitious youth with the inspiration of their smiles and presence, and there were many citizens of the city and District, prominent for official or professional distinction. The music of the day was by the Marine Band in pretty much their entire force. The or der of exercises was as follows :

French Revolution of '98, by Jus. O. Martin Ode to Louisiana, by Charles G. Andry. Battle of Hastings, by Robert Y. Brown The Bridge of Lodi, by Henry S. Foote. The Jow, by James H. Dooley Classics, by Francis X. Ward. Party Spirit, by John B. Gardiner. Coriolanus, by Joseph P. Orme. History, by Clement S. Lancaster.

Dialogue on Woman's Rights, by John E. Doo-ey and Edward G. Chupein.

Mary Queen of Scots, by James F. McLaughlin, Law and its Relations to our Country, by Robt. F. Lovelace.

Battle of Fort Moultrie, by John F. Marion

Valedictory, by James P. Neale. The President of the United States then participated in the ceremony of graduation and distribution of medals and premiums, delivering to each graduate his diploma and to the successful student his token of honor. The degree of LL. D. was conferred on Alexander Dimitry, of Louisiana; Geo. W Watterston, of Louisiana; and Augustin Jose Morales, of New York. The degree of M. D. was conferred at the late commencement of the Medical Department of Georgetown College, held March 10th, 1859, on Reuben Cleary, of the District of Columbia; Lucius Smith, Ohio; Jos. T. Howard, District of Columbia; G. W.

Martin, Louisiana; John B Gardiner, Maryland; Francis X. Ward, Maryland; Clement S. Lancaster, Pennsylvania: and Peter S. Braud, Louisiana.

The degree of A. B. was conferred on the following students of the College of the Holy Cross, near Worcester, Massachusetts Charles Stone and James Tracy, of Massachusetts.

Thirty-six medals and perhap to the intelligent audience.

Subsequently to the discharge of these weightier duties, the students in their great dining hall, and the Faculty and their visiting friends in the refectory, discussed the substantialities and delicacies of the table. with those concomitants of sparkling wit, humor, and bon-hommie so well remembered by all who have enjoyed the pleasure of sit ting at the College table. Rev. Dr. Early, President of the College, presided, Rev. B Maguire, ex-President, was near him, and Dr. Alex. Dimitry supported the President during the prandial exercises. Besides the literary faculty, the Medical Department of the College was represented by Drs. Noble

Young, Lieberman, Eliot, and Antisell. The number of students of the College proper during the past year was three hundred and seventeen, and of the Medical Department thirty-four, making three hundred and fifty-one in all. Several societies intended to aid in the advancement of students in various provinces of literary, scientific, artistic, and oratorial concern, are attached to the College. Of these may be mentioned the Greek Academy, the Philodemic Society, the Philonomosian Society, the Philistorian Society, the Dramatic, Philharmonic, and the Reading Room Association. The College library contains 24,000 volumes, a good philosophical apparatus, a museum o natural specimens, coins, &c., and a well appointed observatory. The whole faculty mprise more than thirty gentlemen devo ted to classical, linguistic, mathematical, scientific, and metaphysical instruction. At no former period has this institution been so powerful or prosperous as at present. - Na.

University of Virginia.

We are gratified to learn that the session of the University which has just terminated. special awakening, has nevertheless been one of decided religious prosperity, as will ap-pear from the figures below. It is impossible to commend too strongly to the prayers of all Christian people the spiritual interests of this great institution, whose influence for good, under God's blessing, may be perfectly incalculable. Among the 625 students of 1858-59, as many as one hundred and sixty-fice i. e. more than 25 per-cent, were professors of religion, divided amongst the ifferent Protestant Communions as follows: Baptists, 64; Episcopalians, 50; Presbyte rians, 25; Methodists, 11; scattering 15. In no previous session of the University has the aggregate number of pious students been so great, nor has their proportion of the whole number ever before been so large. Southern Churchman.

Travel. The South is sending its legions of pleas ure-seekers through this city to the great northern watering places. The up-town he tels are crammed with birds of passage which the female species is generally pretty and gaily plumed-and all the steamers and railroad cars northward bound fairly groun with passengers, who groan in their turn at the innumerable discomforts of summer trav elling. Ladies' trunks (by which I mean. course, the receptacles for their manifold gear) are about a foot larger this year that they were last year, when Mr. Punch got of his famous prophetic illustration of a trunk as big as a summer cottage, accessible only by a ladder from the outside. It makes my head swim to see the baggage vans tearing down Broadway loaded, in a lofty pyramids form, with these gigantic contrivances, and I am daily expecting that one of them will upset turning a corner, and bury a dozen side-walk pedestrians beneath its ponderous
